

Background

The goal of the Carroll County Equestrian Council is to promote public equine recreational opportunities using parks, facilities, volunteers, and local organizations. The council is active in the promotion and development of multiuse trails that may be used by both equestrian and other user groups.

The Council was founded in 1984 and operates in cooperation with Carroll County Recreation and Parks. The Council regularly interacts with the Bureau of Facilities.

Trails in Carroll County Need You!

We Need You! How Can You Help?

The Carroll County Equestrian Council maintains the trails on public owned land in Carroll County at:
 Gillis Falls Area Piney Run Park
 Morgan Run NEA Union Mills Area

Volunteers are needed for the regular trail maintenance.

Volunteers provide their own tools and the work is coordinated by the CCEC.
The best way to learn a trail system is to help maintain it.

To participate in a Trail Maintenance Work day for 2018 please contact the following people for dates and times or check the website::
