Carolyn has spent most of her life around horses as a rider, trainer, care-giver, and instructor. In 1968, she started Persimmon Tree Farm on her family's farm in Owings Mills. In 1986, the business was relocated to its current location. Carolyn has presented a number of clinics involving clinicians such as George Morris, Frank Madden, Kip Rosenthal, and Archie Cox. Carolyn has served as a USEF Zone 3 Representative as well as on the board of the Maryland Horse Show Association. In 2006, Carolyn was the recipient of the MHSA John A. Wagner Jr. Memorial Perpetual Trophy for her many contributions to the Maryland horse show community.
