This is a Guided Ride to help riders become familiar with the trails – 2 ½ hour ride at a walk/trot. Limit of 10 riders. Horses MUST cross water. Negative coggins required on day of ride. Please bring horse water, as none is available at the parking lot. Be prepared to clean up after your horse.

Walk/trot ride, approximately 2 ½ hours consisting of two loops; first loop about 4 ½ miles, second loop about 3 ½ miles featuring rolling hills, through forest and around field edges, lovely views of Lake Marburg. There are a few stream and road crossings, so horses should be prepared for these! Bring a chair and lunch for yourself (and your horse) for some relaxation after the ride.

Directions:

From Hanover, PA:

Take Rt. 216 east, cross three bridges (over Lake Marburg)

Turn left onto Sinsheim Road, drive approximately .6 mile

Turn left onto the Main Launch Day Use Area entrance road.

Parking lot is on the left.

Note: In the event of inclement weather, muddy trail conditions may necessitate ride postponement.
